Molly Fox Named New Director of Communications for the City of Bedford

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Bedford, Texas- (January 11, 2021) – With a decade of municipal communications experience, Molly Fox has been hired as the new Director of Communications for the City of Bedford. Fox currently serves as the Director of Communications for the Town of Flower Mound. During her years there, she and her team have garnered more than 130 state and national awards for their communication efforts. Her first day with the City of Bedford will be Monday, February 8.

“I am excited for this opportunity to help engage and inform the Bedford community,” Fox said. “I plan to build upon the City’s existing communications efforts to help residents have better access to information that’s relevant to them, learn more about where they live, and find new reasons to take pride in the City of Bedford.”

Fox also serves on the Executive Board of the Texas Association of Municipal Information Officers and graduated from the Certified Public Communicator program at Texas Christian University. She is also an active member of the City-County Communications and Marketing Association and the Government Social Media Organization.

“We are excited to welcome Molly to the Bedford family,” said City Manager Jimmy Stathatos. “Bedford is an incredible City and Molly is going to take our communications efforts and engagement with our residents and businesses to the next level.”
